

City of Campbell River
From the Office of the Mayor

– PROCLAMATION –

WHEREAS community social services are vital to the quality of life of all British Columbians;

AND WHEREAS community social services in British Columbia include child care; community living supports; services for children and families; Aboriginal peoples; people with disabilities; people and families dealing with mental health and/or substance use issues; community justice services including correction services, victim services programs and violence against women programs; transition houses and sexual assault centres for women and their families; employment training programs; community rehabilitation services; multicultural, settlement and immigrant services; and more;

AND WHEREAS the availability of these supportive services helps improve the quality of life for everyone, while making our communities stronger, more stable and more economically sustainable;

AND WHEREAS greater recognition and understanding of the critical role these services play in our communities are needed to ensure their continued availability and improvement;

AND WHEREAS awareness and support for these services begins at the local level.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Charlie Cornfield, Mayor of the City of Campbell River do hereby proclaim March 2011 to be:

"COMMUNITY SOCIAL SERVICES AWARENESS MONTH"

in the City of Campbell River, British Columbia.

Dated this 10th day of February, 2011.

Charlie J. Cornfield
